They tell of a citizen of Dubuque who, after paying a policeman $3 a night for six weeks to watch his wife, discovered that his wife had all along been paying the same man $4 a night to watch her husband. We don't enry that policeman his feelings on hearing of the discovery.

The late John C. Heenan is said to have left a fortune of $100,000, all oh be made by running a gambling-hell, or, to speak more prously, seambling hades. Why can't Rad-ical politicians contrive to care each his fortune in very nearly, if not quite, as henorable a way as Heenan did his?

On her dying bod, Mrs. Scott, of Delaware, wrote, among other things: "It is also my earnest wish that my darling husband shall marry ore long a nice, pretty girl, who is a good housekeeper." Poor Scott! He would no doubt gladly give twenty of the best years of his life for his wife to have died leaving that fatal wish un-

"We rejoice for our part to be-lieve," says a New York paper, "that in many respects this age is better If it has developed a Tweed, it has also sent him to the penitentiary.' Not so. Tweed was sent to the penintentiary in spitejof the age, which has developed hundreds of grander reseals, many of whom it has sent to Congress, and none of whom it has sent to the penitentiary.

The residence of the late William Shakspeare, at Stratford on-Avon, was recently sold to a New Zealander tor one hundred and ninety thousand pounds. The inconsiderate sayage might have saved nine-tenths of his mency if he had gone over in time to make the trade with Shakespeare himself

The explosion of the great ironclad Tetuan, forty gans, in the harbor of Cartagena, is a serious less to the Communists, and ought to make even the badly manned and managed Republican feet masters of the const. If the Communist forays are pre-vented, the city will soon fall for want of food.

The Hennepin (Ill.) Record states that a Mrs. Birney, of that place, has been for years afflicted with a severe cough, believed by her triends to be consumption. Last week, during a severe paroxysm, she threw up a hard substance, which proved to be a por-tion of a knile blade, an inch or more in length. When or how it was in-treduced into her throat, she has no resollection, but, from the fact that there has been no return of the coughing spasms, she believes it was the she will new recover

A pretracted and rather sanguiir with Spain would have been a great blessing to us, if the men to be sacrificed could have been properly selected; for this country of ours is as thoroughly over-run to-day by the cankers of a caim world and a long peace as if it had been fifty years since the continent heard the sound of a hostile gun.

It is not a pleasant thing to be editor of a German paper under Bismarck's regime just now. Even the Cologne Gazette one of the so-called official organs of the new German Empire, has had its edition containing the Pope's WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER last encyclical suppressed, and is now quite at a loss to know what it is allowed to print. The editor of a Koenigsberg paper was condemned to three months' imprisonment because he admitted into the columns of his paper an official dispatch of Lord Ressell's. Several other newspapers have been confiscated because they published the answer of the Pope to Archbishop Ledochowski's letter. Other papers were confiscated the their editors, published letter. Other papers were confiscated the Chair editors punished because they published the Pope's letter to ror William, while governmens official journals were not only al-lowed, but instructed to publish it. The German editor is, therefore, con-siderably nenplused just at present as to what is official news which he is allowed to publish, and what offi-dial news is considered contraband.

Between two and three o'clock yesterday morning, a respectable young married female, living in the seighborhood of the general hospi-cal, appeared as the door of the insti-tation and rang the bell for admit-tance. The lemale nightwatch, who happened to be in attendance, opened the door, when, to her surprise, a lady entered, scantily clad, her wearing apparel consisting only of a night dress. Her eyes were open and in dress. her hands she held an open Bible, which, addressing the waiter, she requested to be given to one of the pa-trents in the hospital. Thinking the woman to be insane, the watch called the house surgeon, who, perceiving what was the matter, put a few questions to the former, when she awoke with a serceph, and, finding where she was, began making the most frantic appeals for help. The doctor kindly ordered the nurse to supply to her house. On arriving there they found her husband in bed fast asleep, entirely unconscious of his wife's ad-
